Our Movie Highlights 2022

We are living in strange times. The last 12 months has seen us locked in our own homes, worried about health, family and livelihood.

A trip to the cinema won't solve any of the issues that we're currently living through but it can be a release during tough times.

Thanks to the measures put in place by our cinema partners, a trip to the cinema is one of the safest out of home entertainment options available and it can provide a much needed lift for the soul and escape from the monotony of increasing time spent at home.

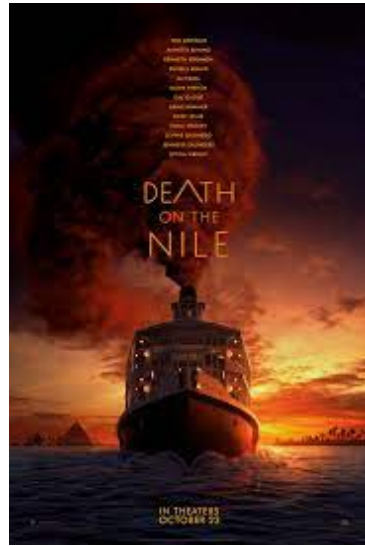

So here's our overview of some of the great films coming our way in 2022. From Top Gun to The Batman, Poirot to John Wick, Thor to The Flash and Witney to Dumbledore, 2022 will bring lots of opportunities for you to laugh, cry, jump out of your seats and fall in love with the cinema again.

Month by month here are our highlights. We'll see you there.

January is traditionally the month where studios release “award-worthy” movies. That includes Belfast a comedy drama from the pen of Kenneth Branagh starring Dame Judi Dench

Sing 2 will be a huge family movie, The 355 has a high quality female cast in a spy thriller and the Scream remake will bring back great memories!

A good dog/cop buddy movie is long overdue and Channing Tatum gives us on in February in Dog while Branagh's Poirot-tale Death on the Nile finally hits screens. Spider-favourite Tom Holland returns in game adap Uncharted and there will be thrills aplenty in Moonfall. There's comedy with Jim Broadbent and Helen Mirren in The Duke and romance in Lopez/Wilson love in Marry Me Oh and the Jackass boys are back!

March has plenty of Blockbusters on screen. Robert Pattinson takes over the cape for a new take on The Batman. Downton Abbey returns to cinemas and Pixar will treat us to Turning Red.

Catherine Tate's Nan moves from the sofa to the multiplex and there's Jake Gyllenhaal action in Ambulance too!

We're back to the wizarding world in April as Fantastic Beasts The Secrets of Dumbledore hits cinemas. There's animated fun in Sonic 2 and The Bad Guys. Marvel's Morbius and Ron Howard's tale of the Thailand cave rescue in Thirteen Lives!

We're going to feel the need, the need for speed in May as Tom Cruise returns in Top Gun: Maverick. Fresh from trying to keep Spider-Man under control Doctor Strange returns in The Multiverse of Madness (expect him to be joined by lots of Marvel favourites too!).

Keanu Reeves brings John Wick back to our cinemas in the fourth installment while there's family fun with Dwayne Johnson and Kevin Hart in DC's The League of Super-Pets!

As we move into June, Hollywood are still shifting movie titles around so expect more to drop in over the coming months but the ones we do know about are pretty special!

Pixar will reintroduce us to Buzz in his origin story Lightyear and Jurassic World 3 takes a turn for the terrifying as the beasts are let loose.

Baz Luhrmann presents a musical biopic of Elvis which we think is going to leave us All Shook Up.

July will see The Minions return plus Thor is back in Love and Thunder (if you know you know!)

Dwayne Johnson will go Super in DC's Black Adam while Brad Pitt and Sandra Bullock see action in Bullet Train.

For a softer choice The Railway Children Return and Where the Crawdad's Sing make the move from page to screen.

There are more movies to be announced for August, including Disney and Universal titles.

Those we do know about are Idris Elba in Beast, a survival story of man against Lion. Kevin Hart will have laugh's in edge of your seat comic-thriller The Man from Toronto.

The hilarious Bros hit the big screen (no not the Goss brothers) and Sly Stallone will star as a very different kid of superhero in Samaritan.

Tom's back in Mission Impossible 7 in September

There's a terrifying Salem's Lot remake and a disturbing thriller Don't Worry Darling set in the 1950s.

Not much is known about Ticket to Paradise except the cast but with Julia Roberts and George Clooney starring - we'll be there!

Who's back in October? Lots of Spider-people that's who in Spider-Man Across the Spiderverse the sequel the incredibly successful Spider-Man animation.

Puss in back in his Boots in The Last Wish and Halloween Ends (or does it?)

Lots of fun in November as Marvel take us back to Wakanda Forever.

Disney are due to release a live-action version of Pinocchio starring Tom Hanks and also a beautiful new animated story Strange World.

Last but by no means least is DC's movie-extension of their hugely successful TV series The Flash.

It's going to be a bumper December featuring the long-awaited sequel to Avatar, a Whitney Houston biopic and Babylon starring Brad Pitt, Margot Robbie and Tobey Maguire!
